

NOTICE.—To any persons claiming fifteen hundred dollars of the unexpended fund of the Republic of Texas, transferred by the undersigned on the 2d of November, 1838, to Andrews & Bretherick. That unless they produce the same at the Comptroller's Office, in the City of Austin, within three months from the publication of this publication, I shall apply for a renewal of the same, and the provisions of the last session of the Legislature of the State of Texas, relating thereto, will be observed.

This is to certify that the above advertisement has been published in the Texas State Gazette from the 28th day of February to the 6th day of May 1854
